How community immunity works

Disease spreads quickly when no one is immunized.

The spread of disease is contained when most people are immunized.